49th REGIMENT OF O'HO INFANTRY!!

The ranks of this regiment have been thined by disease and battle, until its effective ness has become impaired, to such an extent, that the General Commanding has ordered that it be recruited up to the maximum number, and for that purpose Lieut. Foster, and myself, with a party of ten non-commissioned officers have been detailed.

Then what reason have they?

The slavery question is a more present at the result of an enormous conspiracy is the formed more than a year since, formed by leaders in the Southern Confederacy more than twelve months ago. They used the slavery fuestion as a lutiously Government at Montgomery, means to aid the accomplishments of their ends. They desired the electron of upon the walls of the Capital at Wash-
